Leadership Fort Stockton Selection Criteria

- Application to leadership Fort Stockton is open to persons living in the Fort Stockton community.
- Participants are chosen by the Leadership Fort Stockton Selection Committee on their own merits based upon the information completed in this application. The committee seeks representation from a cross section of the community including business, labor, education, the arts, religion, government, community based organizations, ethnic and minority groups.
- Applicants must have the full support of the organization or corporation they represent.

Individuals may nominate themselves.

- Attendance at the retreat to Mo Ranch (near Kerrville) is mandatory. It will be held September 14-17, 2023. You will not be considered if you cannot attend the retreat.
- Attendance at monthly meetings is also mandatory. In reviewing the applications, the Selection Committee looks for potential participants who demonstrate the following criteria:
  - Commitment and motivation to serve the Fort Stockton area;
  - Demonstrate a desire to build a better Fort Stockton
  - Ability to have the time commitment required by the program.
